

Future for UNeECC

Bringing cultures together

Mary
Ádam
Violette
Alen

The purpose of the conference

- To bring cultures together through discussions of different topics
- To exchange experiences within university cities
- To propose new ideas how to represent our cultures throughout Europe and the world

Who is it for?

- Students of the universities that are members of UNeECC
 1. Two representatives of every participating university
 2. Members who are involved in the student associations
 3. Whoever the University picks

Who is it organized by and where ?

- The host universities with help from the university that will organized the next conference
- The student assosiation from the host university

When?

- Twice a year at different universities

University A – host

University B – is helping

Next conference

University B – host

University C – is helping

....

- When there are events in the city

Financial resources

- Host university
- Sponsorship from local councils
- Fundraising for the student to be sent to the other university
- European Commission

Promotion

- Universities websites and Prospectus
- Student associations of the universities

Evaluation

- The students will gather together at the host universities, where they will discuss various topics in relation to their own university. For example:
- How they can get involved with the capital of culture
- Ways to network with international students